

K-LOVE serves me as a resident of this city

This is the best station of any local stations and would leave a gap in programming that could not be replaced locally.

The positive encouraging message of this station is sorely needed by this community, and can only be supplied by a national radio station like K-LOVE with all the resources available to it and repeated on the local FM translators.

Sincerly,

William Thomson